Protest Grain Receivers Union (URGARA)

Buenos Aires, March 07th, 2024.

Please note that the Grain Receivers Union (URGARA) has initiated a protest, demanding an increase in wages.

They are carrying out random stoppages in loading operations as follows:

Bahia Blanca Port: Stopping loading operations for about one to two hours per shift in all grain terminals.

Necochea Port: Stopping loading operations for 4 hours per shift out of 6 in all grain terminals.

In upriver ports, there are rumors that workers may participate in the protest, but so far, there is no register of terminals affected.

It is still uncertain how this situation will develop in the forthcoming days.

We will keep you duly posted on further developments
